

A photograph of a modern interior space, likely a lobby or atrium. The central feature is a large, white, rectangular structure that appears to be a wall or a large piece of furniture. It has a clean, minimalist design with horizontal lines. Above this structure is a glass railing or partition, which is highlighted by an orange rectangular border. The railing is made of clear glass panels held together by metal frames. The background shows a ceiling with recessed lighting and a series of windows or glass panels. The overall aesthetic is contemporary and architectural.
