

A photograph of a modern building's interior atrium. The space is characterized by multiple levels with glass railings and white balustrades. The walls are composed of light-colored, rectangular panels. Two prominent vertical columns are visible, flanking a central area. In the foreground, there is a large, white, geometric structure with a triangular cutout. A rectangular area in the middle of the image is highlighted with an orange border. Inside this highlighted area, the text "20'W x 7'H" is displayed in a bold, black, sans-serif font. The floor is highly reflective, showing the surrounding architecture and the highlighted area.
